

Edmonton Cubs Collector:

This badge is awarded to Cubs who showing a continuing interest, over a period of at least three months, in making a collection of a number of similar items. Some examples of suitable items to collect, are: stamps; rocks; coins; postcards; fossils; lego; cars; key ring; or trading cards. There are lots of possibilities! Check out other ideas with your Cub Leader.

Display the items in your collection in an interesting way, showing that you have thought about your collection, and allowing others to see it.

Be able to talk to the Cub Pack, or a Cub leader, about items in the collection that particularly interest you.

Visit or look at a collection made by someone else, and explain what you like or dislike about the presentation of the collection.

